Industry Travel

Southern California Area

The Committee met to discuss the voluntary travel of workers both within and outside of the defined Southern California Area. The Committee agreed that all travel in accordance with Supplement IV of the PCL&CA and all applicable area/local agreements in the defined Southern California Area are suspended effective Tuesday, August 3, 2021.

In addition, all voluntary travel amongst the locals within the defined Southern California Area (Supplement IV, Item 2) is suspended effective Tuesday, August 3, 2021. All current visitors from locals outside the defined Southern California Area are required to immediately return to their home port.

The Committee agreed to immediately advise the JPLRCs of this decision.

The Committee further agreed that the travel restrictions outlined above shall remain in place until August 27, 2021. The Committee shall meet to revisit the issue and determine the next appropriate steps by August 27, 2021.

Item closed.
