Industry Travel

Southern California Area

The Committee met to discuss and review the restrictions on the voluntary travel of workers both within and outside of the defined Southern California Area agreed to in CLRC Mtg. No. 54-21. The Committee agreed that all travel in accordance with Supplement IV of the PCL&CA and all applicable area/local agreements in the defined Southern California Area remains suspended.

In addition, all voluntary travel amongst the locals within the defined Southern California Area (Supplement IV, Item 2) remains suspended. All current visitors from locals outside the defined Southern California Area are required to immediately return to their home port.

The Committee agreed to immediately advise the JPLRCs of this decision.

The Committee further agreed that the travel restrictions outlined above shall remain in place until September 24, 2021. The Committee shall meet to revisit the issue and determine the next appropriate steps by September 24, 2021.

Item closed.
