No. 70-21, and CLRC Mtg. No. 79-21.

After discussion, the Committee agreed that travel within each of the defined areas found under Supplement IV of the PCL&CA will continue to be authorized without restriction.

Travel outside each of the defined areas remains restricted.

In addition, the Committee agreed that the daily workplace illness report generated by PMA will continue to be provided daily to each local in the defined areas in order to track confirmed and suspected cases of COVID-19 as well as close contacts. The daily illness reports provided to each local will encompass their defined area.

The Committee agreed that the travel restriction outlined above shall remain in place until December 15, 2021.

Item closed.
